

LAW OFFICE
OF
LORNE M. FIENBERG P.L.L.C.

Document Checklist for I-751 Petitions to Remove Conditions on Status

- _____ Copy of Alien Registration Card
- _____ Photographs of the conditional resident and U.S. citizen spouse, together and with family and friends (just a few—not the whole album)
- _____ Birth Certificate of any children born to the couple, and/or raised by the couple
- _____ Federal and State income tax returns filed since conditional residence was obtained
- _____ Bank statements for joint accounts held since conditional residence was obtained
- _____ Rental agreements or mortgage statements for homes in which the couple has lived since conditional residence was obtained
- _____ Electric, gas and phone bills for service received at the marital home(s) since conditional residence was obtained (documentation to show that you are sharing a residence)
- _____ Statements showing health/life insurance coverage held by one party, with other party as the beneficiary for the period since conditional residence was obtained
- _____ Statements showing car insurance held by showing coverage of both parties for the period since conditional residence was obtained
- _____ Statements from joint credit card accounts held by the couple since conditional residence was obtained
- _____ Copies of cards/correspondence (holiday/birthday/anniversary) exchanged by the couple or received from others since conditional residence was obtained (again, just a few)
- _____ List of all residences in which the couple has lived with relevant dates since conditional residence was obtained

The above items are requested to show documentation of financial co-mingling and co-habitation by the conditional resident and U.S. citizen spouse. If any of the above documents are not available (or don't apply), please provide other mail showing the names and marital address of the husband and wife such as pay stubs from employment, school registration records of any children (showing the names of parent/guardian) and other mail which bears the couple's name and address.